

FAYE VOGELY

MA MSC

CONTACT

-  +44 75700 88626
-  fayevogely@gmail.com
-  www.fayevogely.com
-  Cambridge, UK

SKILLS

- Project management
- Equity, Diversity & Inclusion
- Team leadership and training
- Line management
- Financial management
- Communication & PR

EDUCATION

University of Salford

BSc Wildlife Conservation

2009–2012

Dissertation title: "Does predation risk influence sleeping behaviour in terrestrial mammals?"

University of Salford

MA Wildlife Documentary

2012–2013

Final documentary "Life in Concrete" on urban marmosets in Belo Horizonte

Manchester Metropolitan University

MSc Animal Behaviour

2013–2015

Dissertation title: "A comparison of two censusing methods on the nocturnal primate Galago senegalensis in Kwakuchinja, Tanzania"

PROFILE

An experienced youth empowerment leader with a focus on project management and leadership. Through academic and practical experience, I have a thorough understanding of international conservation, youth empowerment, and project management. I have extensive experience in strategy development, fundraising and budgets, and community engagement in conservation.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Head of Youth Programmes

London Wildlife Trust (London, UK) 2024–present

- Lead on the effective implementation of a range of youth projects, programmes and initiatives
- Lead on the development and delivery of new programmes such as the Keeping it Wild Collective
- Develop and enforce safeguarding and other policies
- Line management of staff, trainees and volunteers
- Supervision and support of the Youth Board
- Planning and implementation of effective evaluation and impact measurement of the Trust's youth programmes
- Coordinate the delivery of the annual Green Careers Showcase
- Collaborate with partners across London and the eNGO sector
- Develop and manage fundraising applications and reports
- Manage a budget totalling over £750,000
- Support the development of youth-led communications
- Represent the Trust at external events across the sector

Youth Engagement Manager

British Trust for Ornithology (Cambridge, UK) 2021–2024

- Created, developed and implemented BTO's Youth Engagement Programme and growing suite of 15+ projects
- Line management of the Youth Engagement staff team
- Created, developed and lead the Youth Advisory Panel (YAP)
- Managed the Youth Representatives (35+ young volunteers across the UK) with delivery of community events
- Managed partnerships with a wide range of organisations
- Organised a wide range of events for young people age 11+
- Organised and deliver training on a wide range of topics
- Lead on the delivery of the Youth in Nature Summit
- Developed and enforced safeguarding and other policies
- Founded BTO's Equity, Diversity and Inclusion working group
- Lecturer for the MPhil in Conservation Leadership (Cambridge)

LANGUAGES

Dutch	native	French	B1
English	native	German	A2
Spanish	B2	BSL	Level 1

FIELDWORK

- Costa Rica
- Tanzania
- Brazil
- Indonesia
- Poland
- Malaysia

TRAINING

Mental Health First Aid for Youth
MHFA England, 2022

Outdoor Activity First Aid
ProTrainings Europe, 2021

Child Protection & Safeguarding
NSPCC, several courses, 2021/22

EXPERTISE

Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning (MEL)

Using a variety of MEL techniques to adapt and improve projects and processes.

Strategy development

From initiation to delivery, including listening phases.

Team management

Of a range of staff, volunteers, and young people aged 11 to 25.

Events management

Such as conferences, children's events and residential.

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

Working with under-represented groups to ensure they are empowered in our work.

REFERENCES

Available upon request.

Social Media Manager

British Trust for Ornithology (Cambridge, UK) 2018–2021

- Designed and implemented a new social media strategy
- Delivered content and reporting for multiple platforms
- Collaborated closely with the science and engagement teams
- Monitored, analysed and evaluated platform performance
- Maintained relationships with external partners, e.g. BBC

Science Communications Manager

British Trust for Ornithology (Thetford, UK) 2017–2018

- Editor-in-chief of members' magazine, BTO News
- Created captivating narratives about our scientific work for a range of audiences, using e-newsletters and social media
- Developed a new communications strategy
- Worked closely with the scientific team to source stories

Marine Research Assistant

Lang Tengah Turtle Watch (Lang Tengah, Malaysia) 2017

- Responsible for key research into turtle biology
- Designed and implemented reef and shark surveys
- Trained and supervised over 50 volunteers in the field
- Built relationships with community and stakeholders
- Developed and managed a documentary and art project

Project Manager

Orangutan Foundation UK (Kalimantan, Indonesia) 2016

- Created a visitor's centre for viewing site in Borneo
- Managed the scope and delivery of the project to time
- Organised international travel for project team
- Secured funding and partners for collaboration
- Mediated between OFUK and Cube Museum
- Worked directly with local government and community
- Managed budget and fundraising reports
- Worked with a group of six students to develop content

Public Relations & Outreach Officer

Little Fireface Project (Java, Indonesia) 2015–2016

- Participated in primate research using telemetry
- Developed and managed novel PR and Outreach strategy
- Managed all external communications for the charity
- Led the education team and supervised volunteers
- Taught biology and English to children aged 8–16
- Organised community events for up to 300 people
- Created and produced award-winning documentary